COMEDIANS OF COMEDY

Press Contact: Michael O'Brien – mobe@nyc.rr.com

A new wave of creative, risk-taking comedians are coming out of Los Angeles, New York, and cities all over America. Tired of shopworn premises, hack punchlines, and impersonal comedy, these so-called "alternative" comedians are the vanguard of what stand-up comedy will become in the 21st century.

The Original Comedians of Comedy Tour is bringing these comedians to their fans who normally don't get to see them, playing small, packed indie music clubs and college venues.

Patton Oswalt, with an upcoming Comedy Central 1 Hour Special and best-selling album FEELIN' KINDA PATTON; Brian Posehn, writer and performer on MR. SHOW WITH BOB AND DAVID, and Maria Bamford, star of her own Comedy Central special - all of them rising stars in the "alt comedy" scene, very funny, with solid personal hygiene habits.

No drink minimums, no crappy comedy club food, no props (except for Brian's "bubble magic", Patton's "Monica Lewinsky Puppet Theater" and Maria's Box o' Props) this is stand-up comedy where it should be - not in a comedy club.
